Growing up in the town of Durham has given me the opportunity to experience all of the amazing things that can come from a rural community. 4H has been one of those experiences, and the Durham Fall Fair has given me a place to express and show my passion for 4H for as long as I can remember. Last September the Fall Fair provided me with another incredible experience when I was chosen as the Senior Ambassador.

During this past year as the Durham Fall Fair Senior Ambassador I have learned many new things about myself and about my goals in life. Being the Ambassador has pushed me to go out of my comfort zone and seize every opportunity. I have had the honour to meet many wonderful new people and fellow ambassadors. To learn what agriculture and local fairs mean to other youth my age is eye opening, as well as a huge learning experience to discover new ideas that we can bring to our local fair.

As the Ambassador I attended our agricultural society meetings and have the honour of being a committee member. I have been fortunate enough to attend the OAAS Convention, our District 10 meetings and have represented the Durham Agricultural Society along with my Junior Ambassador Faith McCarroll at several other events. As I write this, I am looking forward to the Miss Midwest and CNE Ambassador competitions.

I would like to thank the Durham Agricultural Society for all the support this past year during my journey as the Durham Fall Fair Senior Ambassador. As well as my Junior Ambassador, Faith McCarroll, I couldn't have asked for a better partner in crime to share this title with.

I cannot wait to spend many years to come being a part of something that has always been near and dear to mine and my family's hearts.
